on this the 20th day of September 1838 personally appeared before me Benjamin Hancock a Justice of the peace in and for said County, Jane Craig aged Seventy Eight years the 2nd day of August last past. She being entirely reputable and after being duly sworn for that purpose on her oath makes the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of congress passed the 4th July 1836, that she is the widow of John Craig, who was a soldier of the Revolutionary War as herein after stated She states that she saw her deceased husband the said John Craig enlist in the united States Service in Bedford County in the State of Virginia to seve as a private soldier to serve three years that she saw Joel Devenport [sic: Joel Davenport S39413], and his brother Moses Devenport [Moses Davenport] enlist at the same time they all enlisted at the house of Thomas Brown on a Wedding day, said Brown's daughter Edy Brown being that day married to Ancel Goodman [Ansel Goodman S1375]. they all received the bounty money from a recruiting officer named James Turner [S30757] to go on under Capt Charles Lamberd [later corrected to George Lambert S8810 of the 14th Virginia Continental Regiment] who lived in Bedford County Virginia. that the said John Craig came by the house of her fathers as he went on to Join head quarters. to her best Recollection it was verry Early in the Spring season but owing to the great length of time she cannot say with exact certainty but She believes it was in march and in the spring of Seventeen hundred and seventy seven She cannot say with great certainty what Regiment or Col her said husband was attached to. She recollects often to have heard her deceased husband talk of his marches and services and particularly of being in the battle of the Storming of the Stony Point [16 Jul 1779] and of his having the Small Pox and being at the hospital at the white Plains – and of being in a skirmish at or near the white Plains and of go to many Points and places in the N. Jersey State and crossing the Susquehannah River on their marches and of marching through the states of Pennsylvania and Maryland and nearly all of the north Eastern States, and she thinks of being at Brandywine Battle [11 Sep 1777]. She well Recollects to have often heard him tell of encountering great hardships in halting and travelling with the afflicted with Small Pox. she recollects to have heard him speak of being at a skirmish at some cross Roads. she was well acquainted with him when a child and knew of his absence for the whole Term of his enlistment that on his return home in the spring of 1780, he came by her fathers, towit James Brown's before he went [to] his fathers, towit Joseph Craig's he had a discharge from his said service which she has often heard Read, which was in some way lost or destroyed a great many years before his death but she knows not at what time. She states that in some short time after his return in the spring of 1780. that he engaged in the militia service, as she believes a volunteer and was appointed Captain of the guard to guard the magazine at New London in Bedford County [now in Campbell County] in Virginia, about ten miles from applicants fathers residence and served at New London Six months as she believes at two continued three months engagements, and was engaged in the said service at the time she was married to him it being on the 17th day of September 1780 [later corrected to 1782] She was married to the said John Craig at the house of Parson, John Holt, two miles from where her said husband was then guarding as a captain of the guard which she has no Documentary evidence of except the Record that she has in her Bible as taken from the record of her brothers Bible, who was at the wedding. She states that Chesley Calloway [sic: Chesley Callaway S30917] who was at the marriage had been a soldier with her said husband, that her said husband continued on to be captain of the guard of the magazine at New London, perhaps about three months after their said marriage That some time in the Spring as well as she recollect and in 1781 the precise month not recollected there was a hasty call for men and her said husband went a volunteer for that tour of forty days against the enemy some of the Calloways some of the Moons were a long went a Light horse service only forty days this tour and in a short time thereafter he went again as a militia soldier as a foot soldier and served to three months tour went to Petersburg and Williamsburg and many Points and places in virginia, and was making in the whole after he quit serving as captain of the Guard in New London at least four months service

She states that she can prove as she has no doubt of the facts of her said husband's enlistment and return from the army, and his service at New london and the facts of her said marriage from witnesses whose evidence whose statements will prove that her husband served as herein stated with whom she was acquainted in the time of her husbands absence and service, towit a captain George Dabney [W3007] with whom she was acquainted in the time of her husbands service and who saw her said husband in service at Newlondon in Virginia and by Richard Wade [S3443] things conducing to the proof of facts, who are Revolutionary Pensioners, and lives near her and she thinks by James Turner [S30757] another Revolutionary Pensioner of this county, and by the whole of her said husbands intimate acquaintance who was well acquainted with him in Wayne County Ky for near thirty years befor his death. that he has and was reputed as having been a Revolutionary soldier and that the same never was doubted, and she thinks she can prove by James Pearcy [James Piercy W2849] another Revolutionary Pension, things, fully convincing of her said husbands said service. She has no doubt but she can prove by her said acquaintance to wit. George Dabney James Turner and Richard Wade and from many circumstances and from her record that she must have been married to her Deceased husband on the 17th of September 1780, and she further states that her said Husband lived with her as husband and wife untill the day he died, which was on the 8th day of June 1830. that he died of cancer on the mouth with which he was afflicted many years, and that she has remained a widow ever since that time of his death, as will more fully appear by refference to the proof hereto annexed
